

Photos of 152 Members of “Die Neuner,” the Ninth Ohio Volunteer Infantry Regiment

INTRODUCTION BY DON HEINRICH TOLZMANN,

LIST COMPILED BY KENNY BURCK

The picture bears the title “Ihrem Oberst Gustav Kaemmerling – Die Mitlieder des Neunten Ohio V.I. Regiments” (To its Colonel Gustav Kaemmerling – The Members of the Ninth Ohio V.I. Regiment). The individual pictures date from the 1860s into the 1890s. I believe this was produced for the National Encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic (GAR) held in Cincinnati in 1898. This event was organized in cooperation with Gustav Tafel, who served as Mayor of Cincinnati from 1897 to 1900. In any event, it would have been produced by the Ninth Ohio Volunteer Infantry Regiment veterans group, which belonged to the GAR.

The picture is located at the hall of the Cincinnati Central Turners on Pinney Lane in Springfield Township. An image of it is in Gustav Tafel’s The Cincinnati Germans in the Civil War, the book I translated and edited (Little Miami Publishing Co., 2010), page 30. A reduced and framed copy of the original is in the German Heritage Museum located in West Fork Park in Green Township.

Editor’s note: The Chapter’s book, Hamilton County, Ohio Index of Lesser Known German Resources, contains an index to the Descriptive Book of the Ninth Ohio Regiment with information about 1,100 soldiers including their birthplaces (95% in Germany).
